CLERICAL

Proof-readers: mark corrections needed on indexes retyped by our volunteers. No computer needed. Can be done in the convenience of your own home and spare time.

Typists/Indexers: using Excel or Word format on your home computer, type indexes from a copied version, or create indexes for our scrapbooks or other library materials.

Data Entry Person: be diligent to make corrections to and clean up databases on the computer. Tasks may be done at the library or on your home computer using a flash-drive.

Library Statistics Recorder: do routine monthly reports, approximately 2 hours a month.

Database Trainee: needs knowledge and experience working with database programs and be dedicated and willing to learn. Time involved is flexible.

Digitizing Team Member: help WAGS preserve library resources. Work at home using your own scanner or at the library using our equipment. Training-sessions are available for volunteers.

PHYSICAL-TYPE

Librarian Assistant: assist our experienced lead librarians, during library hours 3 hours a month, as you learn library procedures. Some computer knowledge preferred, but not necessary.

Society Scrapbook Maker: collect newspaper articles, and various photos, etc., dealing with the membership, meetings and events throughout the year.

Accessions helper: prepare books for library shelves. It is easy to learn and time involved is one or two times per month at WAGS Library.

Purchaser: regularly check the office and library supplies, purchase or order as needed.

Library Cleaner: clean rooms and furniture 2-3 hours a year. Volunteer with a friend and wash windows, vacuum, oil wood-paneling, shampoo upholstery, etc.

Tech Specialist: maintain and update computers and reset router on a monthly basis. Time involved is 2 hours per month.

BOARD AND COMMITTEES

Programs and Workshops: Work with Program Chair to plan and facilitate monthly programs and/or additional workshops throughout the year.

Publicity and Communication: Work with Publicity and Promotions team to develop media releases and communicate newsworthy items to various media contacts.

Finance Teams:
        Budget team meets once a year to prepare annual budget for Board and Member approval.

        Audit team meets once a year to perform an internal audit of the treasurer's books.

        Grant Writing team meets, as needed, to identify needs and funding sources; and, to apply for appropriate grants.

Membership Chair or Team: Recruit and welcome new members, reach out to existing members raising awareness of the value of their membership, learn about the needs, issues and desires of members and report to the Board.
